FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 25, 2011

Doyle, Barlow & Mazard PLLC Adds Rosemarie Salguero to Firm's Hospitality Practice

Washington, D.C. – The law firm of Doyle, Barlow & Mazard PLLC (“DBM”) is pleased to announce the addition of Rosemarie Salguero to the firm’s hospitality practice, headed by Andre Barlow.

Ms. Salguero, formerly the interim executive director of Tivoli North Business Association, brings approximately five years of experience in the hospitality industry. In her work with the Tivoli North Business Association, Ms. Salguero addressed the hospitality needs of a wide range of restaurants, bars, grocery stores, retail stores and other businesses.

At DBM, Ms. Salguero will assist Mr. Barlow in his representation of licensees and license applicants before the District of Columbia and Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) Boards. Moreover, she will assist clients with commercial leasing, entity formation and dissolution, litigation, public policy and lobbying, real property acquisitions and sales, registered agent services, and business acquisitions and sales.

Ms. Salguero is a 2008 graduate of American University’s Washington College of Law and a 2002 graduate of Duke University where she majored in Public Policy Studies with minor concentrations in Economics and Spanish Literature. Ms. Salguero has experience drafting agreements, reviewing commercial lease contracts and counseling clients on legal and tax aspects of doing business in the District of Columbia.

She is also experienced in creating budgets, work plans, and grant proposals and has successfully raised close to $400,000 for non-profit clients in the past. In addition, she counseled non-profit clients on the maintenance of federal and state tax-exempt status. She has consulted for major non-profits, including the National Council of La Raza and the National Association of Hispanic Journalists. Prior to starting at Doyle, Barlow & Mazard, Ms. Salguero worked for a general practice law firm in Virginia, assisting in foreclosure defense, immigration, and criminal matters.

Ms. Salguero is fluent in English and Spanish.

DBM is a law firm that provides regulatory counseling and advice to domestic and international entities in the antitrust, international trade, and hospitality arenas.
